

CAN YOUTH AND AGE BE HAPPY IN MARRIAGE?—TRAGIC MISTAKE DECLARES BRIDE

John Eyster, 83, and his 17-year-old bride, Mrs. Beulah Moshier Eyster, at their wedding breakfast. Three months after they enjoyed this meal, Mrs. Eyster left her aged husband, declaring that marriage of youth and age is a mistake.

Los Angeles, June 28.—Youth and age never make a good mate. A young girl can never marry an old man and be happy. The abyss between their modes of living is as wide as the difference between their ages, and there is no way of bridging it.

This is the knowledge that Mrs. Beulah Moshier Eyster has gained from her experience in marriage. At
